Sparkle Highlights of the month

LOOK GREAT, FEEL GREAT, BE GREAT!

Welcome to the month of Love!

Whether it's self-love, friend-love, romantic, or tainted; this warm, fuzzy (and sometimes bitter) topic is on the minds of many this month. What is your love language? For some it's spending quality time, for others it's words of affirmation. Here at Club Sparkle, it's giving the gift of health and wellness (and if you ask Us, that's the best gift of all)! What better way to show someone you love them by helping them feel their optimal best?

Yeah...we couldn't think of anything either :)

Cheers to wellness,

Club Sparkle

THE FALCON AND THE BRANCH

Once there was an emperor who had two magnificent falcons. They were red-footed falcons, and the most beautiful birds he had ever seen. The emperor asked his trusted falconer to train the special birds.

After a few months, the falconer told the emperor that one of the falcons was flying majestically, soaring into the sky, but for some reason, the other bird had stayed on its branch, from the day it arrived, and had never flown once.

The emperor summoned bird experts and animal healers from all over Japan to find out what was wrong – but none could encourage the great creature to take flight.

The emperor, being fully aware the bird had never flown, decided he might need to consult a humble farmer to solve the problem – as a person who works closely with nature and the elements.

The next day, the emperor was overjoyed to see the falcon soaring high over the imperial palace, and he wanted to personally congratulate the farmer.

The grateful emperor asked, “How did you encourage the falcon to fly?”

The farmer quietly replied, “It was very easy, Your Majesty. I simply cut down the branch the falcon was sitting on.”

Lessons of this story:

We all can Sparkle with the beauty of life – soaring to new heights and realizing our amazing potential!

Sometimes, though, we cling to our “safe branches”, and the patterns of behavior and other things that are familiar to us, that can hold us back.

~ “Living a Life with No Limits” is not only possible, it should be natural to us!

Remember: When we let go of clinging to the branch of fear, no longer just conforming to our familiar, comfortable and mundane routines, we are free to soar to the sky and truly Sparkle!

QUESTION OF THE MONTH

What is the proper temperature for Nectura when its consumed hot? Is it ok to warm up Everyyoung?

You can warm up both products but to heat them up to boiling temperature might destroy the vitamins while the minerals will remain intact. It's better to warm them lower than 70 degrees.

Club Sparkle Testimonial

Florita G. Bautista

I am a 72 year old mother of five, and grandmother to 14 grandchildren, that still currently works a full time job. After working 23 years in the Casino, since 1996, I developed Asthma, 3 years ago, due to the second hand smoke. The smoky air in the Casino affected my healthy lungs, where I was prescribed to take inhalers and steroid medication for relief. I have never smoked a cigarette or anything in my entire life.

I would find myself lacking energy to work a full 8 hour required shift, and noticed that I would have to stop to take a breath on my walk through the long corridors to my department, which also affected my ability to walk up and down stairs, and stand for long periods of time, due to my condition. It began to affect me in many ways, where I would miss out on traveling for vacation, or enjoy a family day outside, because the allergies and the air, began to bother and affect my breathing, which would worsen my asthma.

Since my daughter introduced me to these amazing Club Sparkle products Nectura, Everyoung and ION5, I have been taking all three products every day, because I have noticed a big difference in my overall health. Not only am I able to breath better, but I can also walk without having to catch my breath. I haven't had to take my Albuterol inhaler anymore, because of the decrease in inflammation which allows me to be able to breath, as if my asthma has subsided. And according to my Doctors, who performed a recent breathing test on me, they concluded that my asthma has seemed to be fully controlled.

Not only has my breathing ability improved, I have also noticed that I have more energy and focus, and I feel more alert now, than I did before my asthma affected me 3 years ago. I am so thankful and happy to be able and capable to travel and enjoy life outside, and to still have the energy and strength to continue working. I was ready to retire before I started taking the products, but now I look and feel younger, and don't look or feel my age. People also compliment me more now, from the difference they see in my appearance, not just with my hair or my skin, but also because my body is slimmer and stronger, so they get shocked whenever I mention my real age. I am thankful and blessed to experience these wonderful products that is very effective and proven, and I am excited to share my story with anyone I know, who I believe can benefit, like me.

God Bless,

Florita G. Bautista
